INTRODUCTION

The Ahmadiyya Community was founded in 1889 by the Promised Messiah and Mahdi, Hazrat Mirza Ghulam Ahmad of Qadian (A.S) and Lajna Imaillah is an Auxiliary Organisation of the Ahmadiyya Community.

In 1914, Hazrat Mirza Bashir-ud-Din Mahmood Ahmad (May Allah be pleased with him) was elected the second successor to the Promised Messiah. He felt that a vigorous participation of Ahmadi women was as essential for the success of the Community, as that of men, and started activating them for this purpose.

In pursuance of this objective in 1922, he wrote a letter to some prominent ladies in the Community, detailing therein the role which Ahmadi women should play to make Islam go ahead. He called upon them to disseminate his views among the sisters, win their sympathies for his plans and to form an Association to help the resurgence of Islam. This led to the establishment of Lajna Imaillah.

The following pages contain extracts from the aforesaid letter and the rules and regulations concerning the conduct of Lajna's work.

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ نَحْمَدُهُ وَنُصَلِّي عَلَى رَسُولِهِ الْكَرِيمِ

In the name of Allah, most Gracious, ever Merciful

DASTUR ASASI (RULES & REGULATIONS)
OF LAJNA IMAILLAH SILSILA ALIYA AHMADIYYA

THE AIMS AND OBJECTIVES:

Instructions of Hazrat Khalifatul-Masih II^{ra}:

The aims and objectives of Lajna Imaillah as laid down by Hazrat Khalifatul-Masih II^{ra} addressing the members of Lajna Imaillah in 1922 are as follows:

In order to fulfil the objectives of our creation the efforts of our women are equally necessary to the effort of our men. As far as I perceive, this realisation has not yet been created in our women of

WHAT OUR FAITH REQUIRES OF US:

- ❖ How we should spend our lives, so as to attain Allah's pleasure and receive His bounties, not only after death, but also in this very life.
- ❖ Reflection will show that most women do not realise there are tasks beyond their daily chores. The mistrust and ill-feelings against Islam which are being spread amongst children by the woman among the enemies of Islam can only be countered

THROUGH THE EFFORTS OF OUR WOMEN

Similarly, the spirit of sacrifice can be produced in children only through the efforts of the mothers. Apart from their own spiritual, intellectual and moral uplift, the future progress of the Jama'at is also greatly dependent upon the role played by our women in this respect. This is because the children are more easily influenced to a very large extent in their earlier life compared to their later years when they will not be as strongly impressed. Moreover,

THE REFORMATION OF WOMEN CAN BE BETTER AFFECTED BY OTHER WOMEN

Keeping in mind these facts, to those of my sisters who support this viewpoint and consider the following necessary,

I INVITE THEM

- ❖ To fulfil these objectives they should work together and if you too are in agreement with the following points, then please inform me so that we can begin this work immediately.

There is a need that:

- i) Women should strive together to enhance their knowledge and spread the knowledge they have attained to others.
- ii) A body be established for this purpose so that this work can be carried out systematically.

- iii) Certain rules and regulations are formulated to run this body which should be binding on all the members.
- iv) The rules and regulations should conform to Islam as interpreted by Silsila Aliya Ahmadiyya and be contributory to its progress and strength.
- v) Papers regarding various aspects of Islam particularly those pertaining to contemporary issues be read in their meetings and events and be written by the members themselves so that they should learn to use their knowledge.
- vi) In order to increase knowledge, this body should arrange lectures on selected topics which it deems necessary to be delivered by those versed in Islam.
- vii) In order to preserve the spirit of unity in the Jama'at, the affairs of this body shall be conducted in conformity with the schemes prepared of whoever is the Khalifa of the time.
- viii) You shall endeavour to be constantly active in promoting unity among the Jama'at as enjoined upon every Muslim by the Holy Qur'an, The Holy Prophet^{sa} and the Promised Messiah^{as} and you should be always be prepared to offer every sacrifice for this cause.
- ix) You should always pay attention to enhancement of your moral and spiritual standard and should not merely restrict your focus to just eating, drinking and clothing yourself. You should fully help each other in this matter and think of and devise ways and means to achieve this.
- x) You should especially realise your duty regarding the Tarbiyat of your children and shall not let them be alienated, negligent or lazy in religious matters Instead you shall try to make them active, alert and able to bear hardships. Teach them all the matters about religion which you are aware of and inculcate in them the love and obedience of Allah, The Holy Prophet^{sa}, and the Promised Messiah^{as} and the Khulafa. Instil in them the passion to spend their lives for the sake of the true religion and in accordance with their desire, and to devise suggestions to make this possible and act upon them.

xi) When you start working together, you should overlook the faults of each other. Efforts to reform should be carried out with patience and perseverance. In no case should resentment and anger be allowed to create differences and divisions amongst you.

xii) Since every new project is ridiculed by people at the outset, it is necessary, therefore, that you should disregard their mockery and the lesson to bear taunts and insults, with fortitude and bravery (whether given privately or in public) should be learnt beforehand so that by seeing your example other sisters should also come forward to perform their duty.

xiii) In order to strengthen this scheme and to sustain it permanently you should go on convince other sisters to think along the same line and this endeavour can only be achieved if every sister who joins the body considers it her duty to develop the same way of thinking in other sisters.

xiv) To save the programme from disruption it is necessary that only such sisters should be allowed to become members of the body who are in full agreement with these aims. If, God forbid, at some stage a member feels that she disagrees with these aims, she should voluntarily disassociate herself from the body or else be removed from it.*

*Note: at a later stage Hazrat Khalifatul-Masih II^{ra} decided that membership of Lajna Imaillah should be compulsory for every Ahmadi woman.

- xv) The community (Ahmadiyya community) does not infer any special denomination of people. It includes all classes of people; young and old, poor and rich and therefore there should be no discrimination between the rich and the poor in this body. Instead love and equality should be inculcated amongst the poor and the rich and the feelings of contempt and superiority should be eliminated from their hearts, because despite the differences in status, all men are brothers to one another and all women are sisters to one another.
- xvi) Suggestions should be presented to form plans for the service of Islam and to help the poor and needy brothers and sisters in a practical manner.
- xvii) As Allah is the Source of all help, blessings and successes, it is necessary that we fervently pray to Him and also request others to pray that HE KINDLY INSPIRES US WITH SUCH AIMS which fulfil the purpose of our creation. We should further pray that He enables us to choose the best available means and use them to the best of our ability for achieving this purpose. We should also pray that we are granted a blessed end and that our future generations are also recipients of His guidance, through His grace, and that, according to God's Will, He always sustains this work, until the end of times, Ameen.

HAZRAT KHALIFATUL-MASIH IV (ra) STATES:

“The auxiliary organisations can become more alert and active if they were to make a assigned or specific programme weekly or monthly to get together to focus on the subject of Salat. One meeting of Majlis Amila should be always held to ponder only on the subject of Salat – no other topic should be assigned for that meeting. On that day, Lajna should be focusing on Salat, Khuddam should be focusing on Salat and Ansar should be focusing on Salat. They should all make the decision that they will always set aside one meeting in a month to come together to focus on this subject. Where circumstances are such that a monthly meeting is not possible, there members can get together every two months, or every three months but when they have made a programme then they should abide by that and should display steadfastness upon it. They should assess every time as to how much benefit they have gained in that period, how many people are offering Salat who were not doing so before, how many have improved the status of their Salat, how many were informed about the means of achieving the status of enjoying the Salat”.
